

USS LIBERTY "INCIDENT"

On June 8, 1967, the US Navy virtually defenseless intelligence ship USS Liberty was suddenly and brutally attacked. The US Navy had full knowledge that this was an American ship and lied about it being "accidental". 34 American servicemen were forbidden under the strictest of orders for 40 years to tell their story to the American public. False Flags and Synthetic Terror Patriotism begins with knowing who your enemy is.

"It must be noted that men with bad instincts are more in number than the good, and therefore the best results in governing them are attained by violence and terrorization, and not by academic discussions."
...Anonymous, from the Protocols of the Elders of Zion

Evidently there are different types of False Flags that have occurred throughout ancient and modern history. The most popular False Flag is when a government carries out an attack on its own people, then blames it on some enemy, either foreign or domestic, and is then justified in attacking the falsely accused perpetrators. 9/11 is a perfect example.

Another type of False Flag is when a government antagonizes a real enemy into an attack justifying a declaration of war because THEY started it. Pearl Harbor is a for instance.

And there are the fabricated False Flag attacks that didn't happen at all. The Gulf of Tonkin Incident is a for instance.

The Truth is always concealed from the public long enough for everyone to get over it and just move on. If the truth reveals itself a decade or lifetime later, then it's all water under the bridge and what can be done? So, let's just move on... right?

There is no statute of limitations on murder, attempted murder (attempted murder is just as bad as an accomplished murder and there should be no leniency just because you failed at the attempt), aiding and abetting murder, or instigating a murder, especially mass murder.

Israeli False Flag operations go back at least to the summer of 1954, when a failed operation, code named Operation Susannah was conducted in Egypt.

As part of that False Flag operation, a group of Egyptian Jews were recruited by Israeli military intelligence that planned to plant bombs inside Egyptian, American, and British owned targets. The bombings were to be blamed on the Muslim Brotherhood, Egyptian Communists, and other malcontents with the aim of creating an environment of fear, instability and more violence to influence the British to keep their occupying troops in the Suez Canal zone. Israel did not want Egypt nationalizing the Suez Canal and planned to alienate Egypt from the U.S. and Britain who were in support of Egypt on the matter.

The operation resulted in no casualties apart from some of the Jewish recruits who committed suicide after being found out and arrested.

The operation became known as the Levon Affair; so named for Israeli Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon who was forced to resign because of the incident. Israel denied any complicity in the affair for 51 years, but the surviving Levon Affair agents were honored in 2005 by Israeli President Moshe Katzav who presented them with a certificate of appreciation (of all things).

The U.S.S. Liberty
“Accident-Incident”

“The world is a dangerous place to live; not because of the people who are evil, but because of the people who don’t do anything about it.”
...Albert Einstein

The U.S.S. Liberty massacre or so called “accident” occurred on June 8, 1967 in international waters 13 miles off the coast of the Sinai Peninsula during the so called Arab-Israeli Six Day War.

The Liberty was a lightly armed U.S. Navy surveillance ship (call it a spy ship if you’d like) with a crew of 294 officers and men on board. The Liberty’s’ mission was to monitor the military actions taking place onshore between our ally Israel, and their Egyptian foes.

Two hours after the Liberty arrived near the scene, the Israeli Defense Forces sent out plainly marked reconnaissance aircraft to identify the ship. Eight flyovers were made over a three-hour period. A large U.S. flag made the Liberty easily recognizable as being American. The ship’s U.S.

Navy designation, GTR5, was plainly painted in large white lettering on the bow.

The crew was relaxed and many off-duty crewmen were on deck sunning themselves and enjoying the fair weather.

Two hours later, Israeli Mirage III fighter jets arrived and commenced fire on the relatively defenseless ship with rockets and machine guns. Minutes after that, a second flight of fighters, French built Mystere jets armed with napalm, coated the deck with flaming jelly. By now there were dozens of killed and wounded American sailors. Of course the ship's radio team was trying to issue SOS distress calls, but Israeli aircraft were jamming the frequencies with what U.S. Navy communications specialists described as a 'buzz saw' sound. The American flag was shot to shreds and replaced by a larger flag.

An open frequency was finally found and an SOS was sent to the 6th Fleet. Twelve armed F-4s and A-4s were launched from the U.S.S. Saratoga. When information about the unfolding events, particularly the part about the inability of the Israelis to sink the ship in a timely fashion, reached Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara, he ordered the jets to return to the U.S.S. Saratoga. The attack on the Liberty continued with three Israeli torpedo boats also engaging, scoring a torpedo hit, tearing a 40-foot wide hole in the hull, flooding the lower compartments, and killing a dozen more American sailors. As the Liberty began listing, rafts were lowered over the side to facilitate abandonment of the ship. The Israeli torpedo boats raked the rafts with machine gunfire. It was apparent that there were to be no survivors.

After two hours of nonstop attack the Israelis finally ceased fire. One of the torpedo boats approached the Liberty at which point an Israeli officer asked in English with the aid of a bullhorn, "Do you need any help?" A wounded Capt. William McGonagle ordered the quartermaster to respond with an unmistakable, "Fuck you." The Israeli boat turned and left evidently aware that a Russian Destroyer was arriving on the scene in response to the distress calls. The Soviet Destroyer offered assistance but the Liberty's conning officer refused it.

Unknown to the Liberty crew, there was also a U.S. submarine, The Amberjack, in the area on a covert mission but did nothing at all to assist the Liberty.

Finally, after being dead in the water for 16 hours, two American Destroyers reached the Liberty to find 34 U.S. sailors dead and 174 wounded. Many were seriously wounded. As the wounded were being evacuated to the U.S.S. America an Office of Naval Intelligence officer, Admiral Kidd, arrived and commanded the survivors not to talk to anyone about the ordeal or face the severest of consequences.

As it turned out, the attack on the Liberty was a joint U.S.-Israeli operation designated, Operation Cyanide. The plan was: The U.S. would position a convenient American sitting duck (The U.S.S. Liberty). The Israelis would then sink the sitting duck with all hands lost at sea and blame the Egyptians. The U.S.A. would be outraged and enter the war against Egypt and the rest of Israel's opponents, and a large section of the Middle East would then be restructured to Israel's liking with U.S. help.

If it hadn't been for those damn Russian commies and their destroyer arriving and ruining everything, the operation probably would have worked out well, or terrible, depending upon your point of view. Of course, within three weeks, an official report was released describing the awful but understandable "mistake" involving the Liberty. "These errors do occur," Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara concluded.

The cover story and cover up is almost as outrageous as the attack. I could go on about the cover up, but the still living survivors who are no longer disposed to shut up, can best tell that story. Lt. Commander James Ennes relates first hand his experience in his book, Assault on the Liberty. Survivor, and past president of the Liberty Veterans Association, Philip Tourney, wrote his book called, What I Saw That Day. Tourney also mans the helm on every Saturday on the Republic Broadcasting Network's show, Your Voice Counts. He and some of the other elderly U.S.S Liberty survivors will not let allow the lies of the governments of America and Israel stand and will push for the truth till they are dead.

The BBC produced a documentary about the Liberty incident called, Dead in the Water, which can be found on YouTube in its entirety. The book, Operation Cyanide, by BBC investigative journalist Peter Hounam is a must read and lays the whole sordid affair out for you. The Liberty massacre has never been publicized by the censored and totally Zionist controlled American mainstream media.

Upon learning about the U.S.S. Liberty a couple of years ago, I posted a link on my Facebook page to the Liberty website, <ussliberty.org>, and "asked" my 1,200 Facebook "friends" if they had ever heard about this incident and why hadn't I heard of it? Only one Navy vet offered that he had heard something about it. Everyone else, except two people, who responded claimed total ignorance.

Those two people immediately attacked me in the Facebook comments accusing me of being a neo-Nazi for posting anti-Semitic lies.

I was surprised and my feelings were hurt. I'd never been called a neo or any other kind of Nazi before! I have Jewish pals and had a Jewish Little League coach, Jewish teachers, Jewish classmates, Jewish work mates, even a Jewish girlfriend in high school. Shall I go on? I had a Jewish uncle (deceased) who was married to my mother's sister.

I loved him and if there were more people like my Jewish uncle in this world it would be a much better place!

Upon going to these attacker guys' Facebook pages it didn't take long to deduce that they were Jewish Americans. So whose side are these Facebook attackers on who throw the Nazi card down so readily? The Jewish American Facebook attackers even said that the American sailors killed and wounded on the Liberty had it coming because it was a spy ship! ...Well, yes it was a spy ship, but it was an American spy ship, I'm an American, so excuse me if I stand on the American side of this issue. Fuck Israel. We should've nuked 'em in '67

The attacker guys defended Israel, pointing out that it's surrounded by people who want it wiped off the face of the earth, it's a tiny country with a small population, Jews have been persecuted for a 201 thousand years, remember the holocaust and so forth.

I'll always defend the U.S.A. before I'll let some stranger get away with some crack about how murdered Americans had it coming! This episode got me to thinking about loyalty priorities, what sort of ally Israel really is... and much, much more.

This book is the result of that thinking and researching.

The more I thought about this episode, the more I thought that Israel can go to hell and to hell with the traitorous LBJ, his Jewish National Security Advisor (Walt Whitman Rostow), his Secretary of State (Dean Rusk), his Secretary of Defense (Robert S. McNamara) and the military lackeys who served them. And to hell with ANY American Jew, goy or whomever, who places the importance of Israel above the United States of America!

An interesting person involved in the Liberty incident was Admiral John S. McCain (the Arizona Senator's father and Commander of European U.S. Naval Forces, including the 6 th Fleet, in June 1967) for his role in the cover up. Senator McCain, to this day, will defend his position that the slaughter of 34 American sailors (170 wounded) was an "accident of mistaken identity."

If you'd like to see a U.S. Senator get red faced and squirm, just ask Senator John McCain if the U.S.S. Liberty massacre will ever be reinvestigated. He is totally on board with the continuing U.S.S. Liberty whitewash to the point of having endorsed, in writing, the completely bogus disinformation book, The Liberty Incident, written by a Jewish bankruptcy lawyer from Florida named A.J. Cristol.

Cristol's version of the U.S.S. Liberty "incident" is complete bullshit designed to convince any reader that the "incident" was an accident... and IT WAS NOT AN ACCIDENT! His book was sent to every member of Congress to be used as a "reference book" in case any politicians or their constituents should bring up the issue of the U.S.S. Liberty demanding justice and a reinvestigation.

To refer to Arizona Senator John McCain III as a "war hero" is an insult to war heroes. John McCain's father, Admiral John McCain II, was a key player in the U.S.S. Liberty massacre cover-up and was in total cahoots with LBJ, Robert McNamara, and with the Israelis by doing so. The McCains are traitors, plain and simple.

By June 8, despite U.S. and Soviet demands for a cease-fire, the Israelis were planning one more attack to ta acceptance of the cease-fire, the Israelis dispatched planes to the USS Liberty. One roared over the Liberty s Ennes, deck officer, saw on its wings Israel's insignia, the Star of David.

The Liberty Assault LBJ Part 4

Ennes glanced at the U.S. flag atop his ship's tall mast. If he could see the Israeli pilots in their cockpits, he recognized reconnaissance flights, however, that an Israeli aircraft swooped down and fired rockets directly at The Liberty stunned crewmen. Then more planes—with cannon and napalm—turned the Liberty into a floating hell of flame.

The Israeli attacks killed 34 Americans and wounded 171. The ship was partly flooded when an Israeli torpedo crew tried to launch them.

Only by a miracle did The Liberty remain afloat. But its threat to Israel's plans was finished. The next day, June 19, 1967, Israel agreed to a cease-fire.

It was Rostow who first notified Johnson of the assault on the Liberty. Asked who did it, Rostow said he did not know.

Johnson sent an immediate report to Kosygin that the Israelis had torpedoed a U.S. ship. Thus the Kremlin now covered it up. Surviving crew members were separated from each other and the Navy was ordered to make cover-up.

It went virtually unnoticed. Not only the crew of the USS Liberty, but all Americans were victims. Johnson and his staff were not eager to believe in 1967 that the Arabs, not the Israelis, had started the war and that the bombing raid on Israel was a prelude to a full-scale attack on the United States.

While there can be no moral justification for the White House cover-up orders to the Navy after the assault on the Liberty, it is subsequently to listen to the Jewish friends and advisers who urged him not to put any pressure on the Israelis.

In 1967, President Johnson felt he needed all the support he could get to "win" in Vietnam. Many American Jewish leaders, including influential Jewish Americans would stop at nothing to support Israel—which would include ignoring the Israeli attack on the Liberty.

In a memo to the president, Wattenberg, whose parents had moved to the U. S. from Palestine and who was himself Jewish, he would win American Jewish support for the war in Vietnam. Many American Jewish leaders are "double agents."

A "Bonus" for Johnson LBJ Part 5

"You stand to be cheered now by those (American Jewish leaders) who were jeering last week," Wattenberg wrote. He predicted, would "help turn around 'the other war'—the domestic dissatisfaction about Vietnam."

The support given by the American Jewish leaders "was welcome to the president," as reporter Donald Neff wrote.

I was, at the time, a typical American. I was convinced back then that the Arabs had started the war and desecrated the forces on the ground and how it was that Israel so easily seized all of Palestine, including the rest of Jerusalem.

Yet, despite the euphoria around me, what I saw in the White House planted questions in my mind. As American Jewry, there were two parties to the conflict, Arabs and Jews. But for weeks on end I had seen only one set of advice, and that was whatsoever.

It was only later that I came to reflect on how America, which devoted so much of the efforts of its "best and brightest" after the fall of Saigon, would continue to enmesh U.S. soldiers and diplomats, and project an image of double standards.

Far more than his failed policies in Vietnam, the Middle East policies that LBJ allowed to fall into place in the Jewish State.

Captain Ward Boston Jr. was so disgusted with the cover-up that he wrote a book about it.

A.J. Cristol's version of the Liberty slaughter that he required himself to issue a legal affidavit in October of 2003 stating the following:

I, Ward Boston, Jr. do declare that the following statement is true and complete:

For more than 30 years, I have remained silent on the topic of the USS LIBERTY. I am a military man and when orders come in from the Secretary of Defense and the President of the United States, I follow them.

However, recent attempts to rewrite history compel me to share the truth.

In June of 1967, while serving as a Captain in the Judge Advocate General Corps, Department of the Navy, I was assigned as senior legal counsel for the Navy's Court of Inquiry into the brutal attack on the USS LIBERTY, which occurred on June 8th. The late Admiral Isaac C. Kidd, president of the Court, and I were given only one week to gather evidence for the Navy's official investigation into the attack, despite the fact that we both estimated that a proper court of inquiry into an attack of this magnitude would take at least six months to conduct.

Admiral John S. McCain, Jr., then Commander-in-Chief, Naval Forces Europe (CINCUSNAVEUR), at his headquarters in London, had charged Admiral Kidd (in a letter dated June 10, 1967) to inquire into all the pertinent facts and circumstances leading to and connected with the armed attack; damage resulting therefrom; and deaths of and injuries to Naval personnel. Despite the short amount of time we were given, we gathered a vast amount of evidence, including hours of heartbreaking testimony from the young survivors.

The evidence was clear. Both Admiral Kidd and I believed with certainty that this attack, which killed 34 American sailors and injured 172 others, was a deliberate effort to sink an American ship and murder its entire crew. Each evening, after hearing testimony all day, we often spoke our private thoughts concerning what we had seen and heard. I recall Admiral Kidd repeatedly referring to the Israeli forces responsible for the attack as “murderous bastards.” It was our shared belief, based on the documentary evidence and testimony we received first hand, that the Israeli attack was planned and deliberate, and could not possibly have been an accident.

I am certain that the Israeli pilots that undertook the attack, as well as their superiors, who had ordered the attack, were well aware that the ship was American.

I saw the flag, which had visibly identified the ship as American, riddled with bullet holes, and heard testimony that made it clear that the Israelis intended there be no survivors. Not only did the Israelis attack the ship with napalm, gunfire and missiles, Israeli torpedo boats machine gunned three lifeboats that had been launched by the crew in an attempt to save the most seriously wounded – a war crime.

Admiral Kidd and I both felt it necessary to travel to Israel to interview the Israelis who took part in the attack. Admiral Kidd telephoned Admiral McCain to discuss making arrangements. Admiral Kidd later told me that Admiral McCain was adamant that we were not to travel to Israel or contact the Israelis concerning this matter. Regrettably, we did not receive into evidence and the court did not consider any of the more than 60 witness declarations from men who had been hospitalized and were unable to testify in person. I am outraged at the efforts of the apologists for Israel in this country to claim that this attack was a case of “mistaken identity.” In particular, the recent publication of Jay Cristol’s book, The Liberty Incident, twists the facts and misrepresents the views of those of us who investigated the attack.

It is Cristol’s insidious attempt to whitewash the facts that has pushed me to speak out. I know from personal conversations I had with Admiral Kidd that President Johnson and Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara ordered him to conclude that the attack was a case of “mistaken identity” despite overwhelming evidence to the contrary.

Admiral Kidd told me, after returning from Washington, D.C. that he had been ordered to sit down with two civilians from either the White House or the Defense Department, and rewrite portions of the court’s findings.

Admiral Kidd also told me that he had been ordered to “put the lid” on everything having to do with the attack on the USS LIBERTY. We were never to speak of it and we were to caution everyone else involved that they could never speak of it again.

I have no reason to doubt the accuracy of that statement as I know that the Court of Inquiry transcript that has been released to the public is not the same one that I certified and sent off to Washington.

I know this because it was necessary, due to the exigencies of time, to hand correct and initial a substantial number of pages. I have examined the released version of the transcript and I did not see any pages that bore my hand corrections and initials. Also, the original did not have any blank pages, as the released version does. Finally, the testimony of Lt. Painter concerning the deliberate machine gunning of the life rafts by the Israeli torpedo boat crews, which I distinctly recall being given at the Court of Inquiry and included in the original transcript, is now missing and has been excised.

Following the conclusion of the Court of Inquiry, Admiral Kidd and I remained in contact. Though we never spoke of the attack in public, we did discuss it between ourselves, on occasion. Every time we discussed the attack, Admiral Kidd was adamant that it was a deliberate, planned attack on an American ship.

In 1990, I received a telephone call from Jay Cristol, who wanted to interview me concerning the functioning of the Court of Inquiry. I told him that I would not speak to him on that subject and prepared to hang up the telephone. Cristol then began asking me about my personal background and other, non-Court of Inquiry related matters. I endeavored to answer these questions and politely extricate myself from the conversation. Cristol continued to return to the subject of the Court of Inquiry, which I refused to discuss with him. Finally, I suggested that he contact Admiral Kidd and ask him about the Court of Inquiry. Shortly after my conversation with Cristol, I received a telephone call from Admiral Kidd, inquiring about Cristol and what he was up to. The Admiral spoke of Cristol in disparaging terms and even opined that "Cristol must be an Israeli agent." I don't know if he meant that literally or it was his way of expressing his disgust for Cristol's highly partisan, pro-Israeli approach to questions involving the USS LIBERTY.

At no time did I ever hear Admiral Kidd speak of Cristol other than in highly disparaging terms. I find Cristol's claims of a "close friendship" with Admiral Kidd to be utterly incredible. I also find it impossible to believe the statements he attributes to Admiral Kidd, concerning the attack on the USS LIBERTY.

Several years later, I received a letter from Cristol that contained what he purported to be his notes of our prior conversation. These "notes" were grossly incorrect and bore no resemblance in reality to that discussion. I find it hard to believe that these "notes" were the product of a mistake, rather than an attempt to deceive. I informed Cristol that I disagreed with his recollection of our conversation and that he was wrong. Cristol made several attempts to arrange for the two of us to meet in person and talk but I always found ways to avoid doing this. I did not wish to meet with Cristol as we had nothing in common and I did not trust him. Contrary to the misinformation presented by Cristol and others, it is important for the American people to know that it is clear that Israel is responsible for deliberately attacking an American ship and murdering American sailors, whose bereaved shipmates have lived with this egregious conclusion for many years.”

The Dangling McCain Puppet

There are many non-Jewish politician puppets that gladly dangle from their master's puppet strings and perform every sort of treasonous act for the benefit of their masters. A few examples would be George W. Bush, Donald Rumsfeld, Dick Cheney and... Senator the from Arizona, John McCain.

How can a self-absorbed, disloyal, grand-standing Zionist lackey lap-dog like John McCain get away with every shameful shenanigan he's ever been caught doing? Well, it helps a lot if a Zionist Jewish author like Robert Timberg writes a glowing whitewash about you and the Zionist media omits anything critical of you in return for your fullest support of Israel's agenda. Not to mention all the Zionist contributions to McCain political campaigns. For instance... Merrill Lynch, Citigroup, Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley, JP Morgan Chase, Credit Suisse Group and Blank Rome LLP were all amongst McCain's top 10 presidential campaign contributors and he is still beholden to them all. The American-Israeli Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) alone contributed $750,000 to McCains' ill-fated, ill-advised presidential run of 2008.

Senator John McCain got away with a lot of unprofessional wastes of taxpayer money as a Navy pilot but was regularly promoted up through the ranks in spite, of incompetence and tomfoolery... only because his father was a very influential Navy admiral.

For instances: McCain crashed a jet into Corpus Christi Bay on March 12 th , 1960 while undergoing advanced flight training. The official Navy investigation blamed McCain's inattention to altitude and speed for the crash. In December of 1961, while McCain was on a training mission flying from the carrier U.S.S. Intrepid, he clipped some power lines while hot dogging with his aircraft in Spain. McCain says in his book, Faith of My Fathers, "There were occasional setbacks in my efforts to round out my Navy profile. My reputation was not enhanced when I knocked down some power lines while flying too low over southern Spain. My daredevil clowning had cut off electricity to a great many Spanish homes and created a small international incident."

He did manage to land his aircraft on the Intrepid while trailing ten feet of power cable and dealing with a severed oil line. Any dumb-ass pilot who pulled such a stunt would have been court marshaled... unless their daddy was an influential admiral.

McCain suffered another flameout over the Chesapeake Bay on November 28 th , 1965, and blamed it on an "an explosion in the engine" after making a safe ejection. In a report dated Jan. 18 th , 1966, the Naval Aviation Safety Center said it could not determine the cause of the accident or corroborate McCain's account of an explosion in the engine.

A close examination of the engine found "no discrepancies which would have caused or contributed to engine failure or malfunction." ...Then, two weeks after issuing its initial report, the Safety Center revised its findings and said the accident resulted from the failure or malfunction of "an undetermined component of the engine." So, the Admiral's son benefitted from the fix again.

McCain was not responsible for the explosions and fire aboard the U.S.S. Forrestal on July 29 th , 1967 that killed 134 sailors. The so called "wet start" theory does not hold water.

"Wet starting" involves deliberately dumping fuel into the afterburner of a jet engine before starting causing a large flame to shoot out from the tail of an aircraft when started. The subsonic A-4 jets that McCain's squadron was flying were powered by non-afterburning Pratt & Whitney J-52-P-408A engines. And although a "wet start" can be accomplished with a non-afterburning engine, the fact that McCain's aircraft was parked on deck with the tail pointed out to sea with no aircraft behind him shoots down the theory that McCain "wet started" his aircraft causing a flame to shoot out from his tail which "cooked-off" (ignited) a Zuni rocket attached to the aircraft behind him.

The man can't be faulted for being in the wrong place at the wrong time, as usual, while losing yet another jet aircraft...

The fourth aircraft McCain lost was the Skyhawk he was flying when he was shot down during a bombing raid over Hanoi, North Vietnam on October 26 th , 1967; and thus began the nearly five and a half years of imprisonment in North Viet Nam that is interesting upon close inspection...

First we must ask why McCain would vote against the HR 3603 Truth Accountability Bill. The bill was supported by Senator Bob Dornan (R-Ca.) and Senator Bob Smith (R-N.H.). The purpose of the bill was to get any and all records of POWs in Vietnam, Korea, and anywhere else to determine if any POWs were still alive and still captive.

The House passed the bill by a vote of 401 to 0, but when it got to the Senate for a vote, McCain was the only one that blocked the bill. McCain did not want any scrutiny brought to his own POW records that he had permanently sealed for very good reasons.

McCain does not want the general public to know how cooperative he was with his North Vietnamese captors. He broke both arms and a leg while ejecting from his aircraft after being hit by a surface to air missile over Hanoi. He needed medical attention for his condition after capture and arranged to trade classified information for medical treatment; he also agreed to appear in no fewer than thirty-two anti-American propaganda interviews with the North Vietnamese news service. In these interviews he stated that America's principal targets were schools, orphanages, hospitals, temples, and churches.

McCain has freely admitted in his autobiography, Faith of My Fathers, that he felt disgraced and ashamed of himself for making a propaganda tape for the North Vietnamese that was broadcast over the Hanoi Hilton (POW camp) public address system describing himself as a war criminal who had bombed a school. He claims that, “I felt faithless and couldn’t control my despair,” for having made the tape, and said, “I still wince when I recall wondering if my father had heard of my disgrace.” This admission is only the tip of the iceberg of his traitorous behavior.

McCain’s 1991 McCain Bill created a bureaucratic maze from which only the tiniest fraction of available documents could emerge related to missing and deceased POWs. So restrictive were the bill’s provisions that one clause actually stated that the Pentagon didn’t have to inform the public if, or when, it received intelligence that Americans were alive in captivity.

McCain supporters point out that he passed on an opportunity to be released early and ahead of those who had been imprisoned longer at the Hanoi Hilton. But had McCain taken the early out his Navy career would have been over for disregarding Navy code and he would have become a cowardly pariah; not to mention any political aspirations would have been off the table. Besides, he received enough special treatment to make his time as a POW bearable.

McCain’s first wife since 1965, Carol, who was a former swimsuit model for Jantzen swimwear, was in a car crash on Christmas Eve 1969. She suffered two smashed legs, a broken pelvis, broken arm and ruptured spleen. She chose not to inform her husband of her accident reasoning that he had enough to worry about as a POW. Businessman, former presidential candidate, and POW advocate Ross Perot stepped up to pay for all of her medical care.

BTW: Remember Ross Perot warning America about how much damage NAFTA and other “free-trade” agreements would do to us. He was right about every warning he issued during his presidential run for office. The 17 trade agreements have gutted America’s manufacturing engine and has hamstrunged all of America’s trade advantages.

When the McCains were reunited upon his release from captivity on March 14 th , 1973, Carol was then four inches shorter, in a wheelchair or on crutches and was much heavier than when he’d last seen her. The next six years were a series of extramarital affairs by John resulting in separations. John pushed for a divorce that Carol agreed to without contesting that was finalized on April 2 nd , 1980.

John McCain then married the pretty, young (18 years younger than McCain) Arizona multi-millionaire alcohol distributorship heiress (Hensley & Co.), Cindy Lou Hensley, six weeks later.

As Cindy's trophy husband working for alcohol distributor Hensley & Co., McCain met and befriended some influential Phoenix crooks such as future Arizona Governor Fife Symington who resigned as governor after his conviction for bank fraud in 1997 (later pardoned by President Clinton), and Charles Keating, who defrauded American tax-payers out of $3 billion dollars and left 23,000 Lincoln Savings and Loan customers holding worthless junk bonds after Lincoln Savings and Loan collapsed.

Five U.S. Senators, who associated with Charles Keating, and accepted his financial contributions, argued for preferential treatment from government regulators investigating Keating and became known as the Keating Five. John McCain was one of the five and the only one of the five senators with close personal, business, and social ties to Keating. McCain had to pay back all the money Keating spent on all the McCain family vacations spent at Keating's Bahamas vacation retreat (including transportation aboard Keating's private jet) after the whole scandal hit the news.

McCain was eventually somehow exonerated of "impropriety," but was "criticized for poor judgment." And then the hypocrite sponsored a campaign finance reform bill that would eliminate the corrupting influence of large political contributions from corporations, labor unions, and wealthy individuals. It became his signature issue, along with Jewish Senator Russ Feingold, that was named the McCain-Feingold Act. The Act was initially filibustered in the Senate and never came to a vote until seven years later and after much watering down ... of course.

It was John McCain and Zionist Senator Joe Lieberman who authored the legislation that created the totally compromised and abjectly corrupted 9/11 Commission that completely whitewashed 9/11. This was after he pushed very hard for an Iraq invasion.

McCain pushed the Comprehensive Immigration Reform Act of 2007 which was an illegal immigrant amnesty bill. He supported Bush II and the tax cut extensions that benefitted the wealthy (such as his wife).

After choosing the embarrassingly incompetent fool Sarah Palin as his running mate for the 2008 presidential campaign, McCain suspended his campaign long enough to push for the Wall Street bailout.

McCain has been the chairman of a little known organization funded ($80 million annually with 400 employees) by the U.S. government called the International Republican Institute (IRI) since 1993. The motto of the IRI is "Advancing Democracy Worldwide" and they endeavor to "expand freedom throughout the world."

The IRI conducts international political programs sometimes called 'democratization' programs in foreign countries. IRI involvement in the Haitian coup of 2004, the Honduras coup of 2009, and the uprisings in Egypt, Tunisia and Libya during the so-called "Arab Spring" are examples of IRI 'democratization.'

The IRI boasts about having been in 40 different countries to "monitor" the proceedings and results of over 130 elections; yet where was this neocon peopled far right organization when our own elections of 2000 and 2004 were hijacked? Check out the International Republican Institute and see if you can smell a rat like I do; after all, you are paying for this "institute." The IRI sounds like a CIA front company to me...

I wonder what the IRI thought of McCain's 2008 presidential campaign committee being fined $80,000 by the Federal Election Commission for accepting contributions that exceeded federal limits.

There was a book published in 2006 titled, Debunking 9/11 Myths: Why Conspiracy Theories Can't Stand Up to the Facts. It touted itself as, "An In Depth Investigation By Popular Mechanics." It was a lame whitewash, failed to debunk any 9/11 facts, and relied on the once reputable name of Popular Mechanics to lend credibility to the disinformation. Zionist Jew James B. Meigs is the editor-in-chief of the Hearst owned Popular Mechanics and wants the 9/11 truth trail leading away from Israel and Jewish Americans at all costs. John McCain wrote the foreword for the Popular Mechanics 9/11 disinformation book.

Anyway... In summation: John McCain was not a war hero. There is nothing heroic about being shot down after only 23 combat missions and then earning the designation, "Songbird," by your fellow captives and captors for cooperating with the enemy.

His sucking up to Israel by endorsing the lies related to the USS LIBERTY massacre is traitorous. His sucking up to Israel related to our fighting Israel's wars in the Middle East is traitorous.

His being a brutal obstructionist and turning his back on former POWs and MIAs is shameful. His being a "globalist" is disturbing to the point of repulsion.

Zionists control the media that controls lackeys for Israel like John McCain who will be a featured speaker at the 2013 American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) convention... again. McCain will be consorting with the enemy again...

And speaking of McCain consorting with the enemy...

He spent Memorial Day 2013 in civil war torn Syria meeting with the Syrian rebels. His "super-secret" grand stand was an end-run around the Obama administration's policy of caution regarding involvement in Syria's civil war that was agitated by Israel in the first place.

Israel wants the current Syrian leadership out because it isn't in bed with Israeli regional domination designs.

McCain crossed the border into Syria from Turkey to meet with rebel military leadership. McCain has never met a war he didn't like and went on location to hype the prospects of another Middle Eastern debacle where America can shed blood and capital in a civil conflict where both sides hate us for being Israel's lap dog.

Also speaking at the 2013 AIPAC policy conference will be Vice President Joe Biden, Israeli Prime Minister Bibi Netanyahu, Israeli Defense minister Ehud Barak, House Majority Leader Eric Cantor (R-Va.), uber-Zionist Dennis Ross and former National Security Advisor to Bush II, Elliot Abrams.

AIPAC is nothing more or less than a Washington D.C. gang of Jewish Zionist political arm twisters and bribery specialists who want nothing more than to use the American military to eviscerate Iran as the next step in Israel's goal of total dominance over the Middle East region; then they will work on tipping over all the other dominoes on the planet.

Recall how Americans were told that we had to stop "communist aggression" in Vietnam or else all of Asia, and eventually the world, would come under the dominance of communism. If you consider that communism was invented by Jews such as Marx, Lenin and Trotsky, then the commie-domino theory isn't too far off-base. Only... after America was unceremoniously kicked out of Vietnam, after a decade of slaughter, no other dominoes fell; but they sure are falling in the Middle East and America has been totally subjugated herself...

Evidently America was used, and is being used, as an imperial war machine by the actual people who have designs of world domination. Very clever of the Globalists isn't it?

EL ARISH

A very dark sidebar to the USS Liberty incident is the account by Gabriel Bron, an Israeli reporter for the Tel Aviv Times when the Liberty was attacked. He claims that the USS Liberty would probably have been sunk anyway.

Bron asserted that the USS Liberty's crew might have been aware of a massacre taking place in El Arish just potentially possible for the crew to witness the execution of between 60 to 150 (depending on whose story you believe) Israeli Forces (IDF) military police.

See the New York Times article by Youssef Ibrahim published September 21, 1995:

Egypt Says Israelis Killed POWs in "67 War

See the September 25, 1995 CNN World News article by Gayle Young who reported that mass graves were reported to have been committed. The report also stated that the Israelis were offering to compensate families of the victims but some refused.

But El Arish happened way back in 1967 and isn't relevant anymore right? So let's jump ahead to April 18th, 1986, the bombing of the USS Liberty, killing 100 Lebanese civilians and mutilating scores more.

The Israelis claimed that the bombing was in response to a Hezbollah rocket attack on an Israeli patrol ...but the truth is that the Qana. The Hezbollah indeed conducted the rocket attack knowing full well what the "patrol" was doing and had been doing for the previous month.

The UN conducted an investigation and determined that the bombing of the Qana was deliberate; but, of course, it's really that simple.

Key members of the Lyndon Johnson administration have long agreed that this attack was no accident. "I don't accept the claim that this was a mistaken attack," he insists. A top-secret *ysis of Israel's excuse conducted by the Department of State found Israel's story to be untrue. Yet Israel and its defenders continue to stand by their claim that the attack was a "tragic accident" in which Israel mistook the most modern electronic surveillance vessel in the world for a rusted-out 40-year-old Egyptian horse transport. Despite the evidence, no U.S. administration has never found the courage to defy the Israeli lobby by publicly demanding a proper accounting from Israel.

I entered the Navy June 5th 1964, after graduating from high school. I attended basic at Great Lakes and went through the Radar section of the equipment phase. After graduating from there I was assigned to the USS Forrestal (CVN-59). After a few short cruises to the Caribbean and the area around St Thomas etc, we came back to the states.

During this cruise, I was flown back to the states to attend the AN/SPN-10 air traffic control radar primary job assignment.

After this cruise we returned to the states and after a few months we again were deployed to the USS Forrestal (CVN-59). June the 8th we were alerted to a distress call from one of our ships saying "we are being attacked".

I was assigned to the SPN-10 aircraft landing radar system and my battle station was in the equipment room on the 05 and 06 levels which are two and three decks above the flight deck.

This was the only equipment located in the rear most section of the island and there was nothing but a catwalk that ran on both sides and the rear of the island. You could walk around to the outboard side and spend many hours when not needed for watch or equipment work.

I was here when I first heard of the attack on "one of our ships".

It was probably 15 minutes or so before we got more information of the ship under attack. The air wing had recently launched around 18 aircraft or so for their normal air operations. The next thing I heard was the Air Boss announcing that "we have received orders to recover all aircraft activity within probably 20 minutes or so EVERY AIRCRAFT that could be, was fully armed and ready for action."

There were 4 Phantom Fighters that were fully armed that were launched to provide screen protection. Over the next hour or so there were medical personnel along with stacks of medical supplies, stretchers, etc.

I will never forget that day as the "day they took the safety off". It seemed that we were going to w
